Benefits

Access to Global Network of Expertise

IndianRaga Certification evaluators are professionals who take the time to provide detailed, actionable feedback. You can be part of a global network of artists at different levels, and avail of learning and performance opportunities.

Great Value for Money

We are interested in partnering with our members on an ongoing basis instead of one-time activities. The Membership offers significantly discounted access to Certification, Contests, Webinars, Raga Labs, Fellowship, Online Course Library to open up our entire ecosystem to you as a valued member.

Flexibility

Becoming an IndianRaga member does not take away from your current arts training. We partner with teachers across the world, and students can simply add on the membership to their music training to get access to additional opportunities to learn, perform and shine. You can join us directly, or through your teacher, the choice is yours!

Strong Brand Recognition

Featured by National Public Radio (NPR) in USA and most leading publications in India, IndianRaga has been invited by iconic brands like Lincoln Center and Chicago Cultural Center, corporates like Bank of Tokyo, KPMG. Our Fellows have been selected to join Harvard, Princeton, Berkeley and other prestigious universities.
