

Please note:

1. The registration fee is non-refundable under any and all circumstances
2. If selected as an IndianRaga Fellow, participant needs to pay non-refundable Program fee and refundable Security Deposit and also sign the contract. Details will be sent along with selection mail.
3. The IndianRaga Fellowship is not for Beginners, and applicants are expected to have some training in the performing arts
4. This is a highly competitive process, and decisions made by our selection panel are final and binding
5. The IndianRaga Fellowship selection panel is confidential and names of the judges will not be revealed to the participants
6. In the collaboration round, participants are expected to do basic collaboration with other participants using Skype or Google Hangout
7. All expenses related to travel, accommodation, local transport, meals, etc. are to be borne by the Fellows during the Fellowship week.
8. All content produced at the Fellowship is owned by IndianRaga and selected Fellows will be expected to sign a document to that effect before attending Fellowship week.
9. Parents can accompany, if they want, but at their own expense
10. IndianRaga will release videos produced at the Fellowship on its YouTube and Facebook channels. However, this is subject to all participants submitting work of high standards including technical as well as performance content. After all videos are edited, the IndianRaga panel will review each piece to ensure they all live up to the standards expected by audiences on the IndianRaga and Raga Labs channels. If any piece is found to be sub-standard, we reserve the right to not release it at all.
